HE GOT FOUR YEARS

Lewis the Man that Attempted to Steal

SELLERS' TROUSERS

Sentenced to Jackson for Four Years by Judge Burlingame-Miscellaneous News of the Courts.

George Lewis, who attempted to rob Col. McKnight Sellers in the Morton house a week or two ago, was convicted in the superior court yesterday and was sentenced to Jackson for four years. The only witness was Colonel Sellers and the respondent. Colonel Sellers told how he was awakened by Lewis walking about the room. He Lewis walking about the room. He saw him reach for his pocketbook and sprang out of bed. He struck the intruder twice and then seized him and held him till the clerk came. Lewis claimed to be an old soldier and said he was looking for a man named Thompson to sign a pension claim for him. He said a friend told him Thompson was in the room which he entered.
He had no intention of stealing when he went in and did not reach for the pocketbook. The jury did not take much stock in the story and found him guilty. Lewis is 58 years old and badly broken down in health.

ROUP ADJUDGED INSANS. The Cedar Springs Assessor Sent to the Kalamasoo Asylum,

John Roup of Cedar Springs was ad judged insane by the probate court and an order was issued for his admission to the Kalamazoo asylum at the expense of Kent county. Roup was formerly assessor of the village and was arrested for altering the figures on his fax rolls to increase the amount of laxes. The amount of extra collections taken by him was small, but he was convicted in the circuit court and sentenced to the Ionia prison for two years. If is mind became unbalanced and he was pardoned a few months ago by Governor Winans. He returned to his home and his condition became more alarming. The trouble preyed on his mind until he became a raving maniac. He threatened to kill his family with a butcher knife and Tuesday night escaped from his home and lay in the woods all night. He has wife and several children who are left in destitute circumstances.

Victory for the Catholics Circuit Court Commissioner Hughes rendered his decision yesterday morning in the ejectment proceedings brought by Bishop Richter against the school board of district No. 11 of Alpine township. Judgment was ren-dered in favor of the complainant. By this decision the Catholic element of the district is given full control of the school building and premises and the school board was found guilty of forcibly entering the premises. Costs were taxed against the defendants for $47,20. The complainants were repre-sented by F. A. Stace, and Charles Ward appeared for the defendants.

Faithful Officer.

John W. Donnan, the efficient engineer and superintendent of the court house, is one of the most popular agents in the employ of the county. By his faithful and obliging conduct of ffice he has endeared himself to a host of friends. His wide knowledge of the requirements of the position in particular and his grasp of affairs in general make him a particularly desirable per-son for that office. The board of sup-ervisors cannot do better than to continue him in office.
